Our

GERAKINI
legal studio

Our main goal is to provide customized support to our clients so they can achieve their business objectives and minimize the risks and costs that their activities may involve.

Our work in each case is always determined by the client's strategic goals. Each case deserves and has our fullest attention and we provide holistic multi-disciplinary analysis in order to attain solutions that advance each client's interests.

Our

team

Our team is small.

This outfit provides a flexible structure to tailor individual clients needs.

We are all young.

This makes us innovative and creative. Moreover, the experience and knowledge that we gained in practice in Greek and international law firms, institutions and corporations over the last 15 years, gives us the ability to provide the highest level of legal services.

We are a modern,

forward-thinking legal lab focusing on the clients needs.

That is why we are characterized as proactive, responsive and task-oriented.

Our team members regularly write and lecture on competition and distribution law issues. This is another way to keep ourselves on alert and secure the long-term development of knowledge both within the firm and amongst our clients.
